

Statement of Professional Development in the Area of Fertility Counselling to be signed each year when membership is renewed

Members are required to complete 10 hours of relevant professional development each year to maintain their membership

Records of training can be requested by ANZICA for random audits

Please list relevant professional development completed in the last 12 months. This should include a variety of activities such conferences, courses and training, attendance at ANZICA webinars and training days, research and literature review and individual supervision.

I, _____ have completed a minimum of 10 hours of professional development in the area of fertility counselling in the past 12 months.

Signature _____

Date _____